EYE EXAMINATION

In this day of defective eye-sight, no person, young or old, should wear a glass unless fitted by an expert—one thoroughly familiar with anatomy and diseases of the eye, laws of light and science of optics.

In addition he must depend upon no one method of examination—he must be familiar with all, and substantiate one by use of others. Here you will find employed the best and most scientific methods and back of all, adequate knowledge of the eye and its needs.

JOHN T. MOIR WANTS CARTER TO HOLD ON

"Everything is not gone on Hawaii, so far as the Republican party is concerned," said John Moir, Supervisor-elect on the big island, yesterday. "We have four of the seven Supervisors. And I think that we can hold the thing straight. The opposition members will stand for good government, too. So the case is not so bad as it might seem."

"I most sincerely hope that Governor Carter may be induced to reconsider his resignation. There is much yet to be done for Hawaii, much that he can do better than another. And we will have to begin almost all over again if he insists upon going out. I believe the Governor should take a long rest, and then tackle his problems again—and, in the meantime, we should make such representations at Washington as would decide President Roosevelt not to accept his resignation. After Governor Carter has rested, I think that his problems would present themselves in a new light."

Mr. Moir was one of the Governor's callers yesterday, going to the Capitol after the talk above was had with him.

INTENTION UNCHANGED

ernor yesterday consisted of C. M. Cooke, Wm. G. Irwin, H. P. Baldwin, F. M. Swanzy and William Pfothbauer. The Governor told the members of the committee that he did not see any reason to change his mind. His decision has been reached after careful consideration. And, anyway, it was what Washington wanted, now. There was a long discussion, but nothing more definite than that came of it.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REGRET RESIGNATION

The Chamber of Commerce had one of the largest meetings in its history yesterday, and after the members had all expressed themselves as opposed to any change in the Governorship at the present time, the following resolutions offered by F. M. Swanzy were passed unanimously:

"Whereas, The Hon. George R. Carter has publicly announced his intention to resign the office of Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, be it

Resolved, That the members of the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu hereby express their sincere regret that the Governor should entertain such purpose;

Resolved, That in the administration of the public affairs of the Territory Governor Carter has held the esteem and respect of this Chamber, and in the performance of the difficult and responsible duties of his office he has displayed ability, integrity and high character;

Resolved, That it is our earnest hope that Governor Carter will be persuaded to abandon his intention of resigning and will consent to continue to hold the office."

Certainly Governor Carter can have no fault to find with the expressions of confidence in him uttered by the members of the Chamber. C. M. Cooke opened the discussion. He said that he had heard with much regret of the resignation of the Governor. He feared that the Governor could not be persuaded to withdraw his resignation now, but if that were true, then he believed representations should be made to the President to induce him to refuse to accept it.

"I understand," said F. M. Swanzy, "that Governor Carter's resignation is due to a feeling on his part that he has lost the support of the men upon whom he believed he had a right to depend. If he has done so, the men who have lost confidence in him should explain why. But I do not believe that these men exist. I have not met them; all to whom I have spoken have expressed complete confidence in him and a desire for him to remain in office. His resignation now creates a disturbance in the administrative branches of the government which must be harmful and makes an unrest generally which is most undesirable. The position of Governor is not in every sense desirable, but I hope the Chamber of Commerce will induce Governor Carter to remain and to continue in his efficient discharge of the duties of the office."

"It would be difficult for us to get another man as well fitted for the office as Carter," said Wm. G. Irwin, "and, if we did, the change would create unrest. I think that Governor Carter is worked up and in a nervous state. Let him have a rest and think the matter over and I believe that he will reconsider his determination and finish out his term."

George M. Rolph, Alex Garvie, F. Lanz, Paul Muhlendorf and William Pfothbauer followed with short speeches in which they reiterated the view that any change would be bad for the Territory's business interests and that every effort should be made to have Governor Carter retain office.

"I always understood that Governor Carter was a fighting man," said A. Gartenberg; "let him set his jaw, hang on and rely on the firm support of the best of the community."

J. P. Cooke referred to the manner in which Governor Carter had "purified the judiciary" and had put the business departments of the Territory on a business basis.

"We need him at the head of affairs," pursued Cooke. "I do not know of any other man we could have in his place who would do as well as he has. We may not agree with all of the methods that he has, but that is always the way with a strong man in office. Every effort should be used to have him retain office."

Before the resolutions were voted on, J. J. Egan asked the chair if there was any information as to the relations between the Governor and President at the present time; had the President asked for the Governor's resignation?

Chairman Tenney replied that he knew positively that the President had not asked for the Governor's resignation.

G. W. Smith heartily agreed that the Governor should be asked to remain and he agreed with the spirit of what had been said, as also with the tenor of the resolutions, but he did not counsel going farther.

The resolutions were then carried without dissent, and Secretary Spencer was directed to transmit a copy of them to Governor Carter.
